MEMORANDUM FOR CHIEF, MILITARY INTELLIGENCE CORPS, U.S. ARMY INTELLIGENCE CENTER, FORT HUACHUCA, ARIZONA
85613-6000

SUBJECT: Military Intelligence Corps Honorary Membership
Nomination: George Herbert Walker Bush

1. I recommend George Herbert Walker Bush be granted status as an honorary member of the Military Intelligence Corps. Mr. Bush has served in several important intelligence and intelligence related positions throughout his career. Prior to serving in the intelligence community, Mr. Bush was commissioned as the youngest Naval pilot in World War II. He flew 58 combat missions in a fighter-bomber and was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. After the war, Mr. Bush graduated from Yale University, worked in the oil-drilling business, was elected to two terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, and served as the U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations. Mr. Bush began working with intelligence in 1974 when President Ford appointed him to head the U.S. Liaison Office in Beijing, China. In 1975, President Ford selected Mr. Bush as the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). At the time of his appointment, the CIA was suffering from low morale, primarily because of congressional concerns about the professionalism of CIA members. Prior to his departure from the CIA in 1977, Mr. Bush was credited with drastically improving the agency's professionalism and relations with Congress. After serving two terms as Vice President, Mr. Bush was elected President of the United States in 1988. President Bush proved to be a commander in chief with exceptional ability to understand and utilize military intelligence. During his term, he ordered three highly successful major military operations -- the invasion of Panama to oust a drug-dealing dictator (JUST CAUSE), the liberation of Kuwait (DESERT STORM), and the protection of food distribution in famine stricken Somalia (RESTORE HOPE).

2. Mr. Bush well deserves to be included within the select ranks of honorary members. He has served as both an intelligence professional and as a commander in chief who promoted, supported, and utilized military intelligence. Even though Mr. Bush did not serve in an Army position, he impacted on and contributed to the mission of the Military Intelligence Corps (see attachment).

3. If Mr. Bush's membership is approved, I recommend that the Chief of the Military Intelligence Corps present this honor to him at the Hall of Fame Ceremony on 1 July 1993.

Dear President Bush:

It is my pleasure to inform you of your selection as an Honorary Member of the Military Intelligence Corps. On July 1, 1993, the anniversary of the Military Intelligence Corps, it would be our distinct honor and privilege to present you with your membership certificate during our annual Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. This honor recognizes your lifelong contribution to intelligence in support of national interests, and most specifically, to the interests of the United States Army.

Please contact my office directly for any assistance you require to be in attendance. Call commercial (602) 533-1147/1150.

Respectfully,

Paul E. Menoher, Jr.
Major General, U.S. Army

We would be delighted if you could attend our ceremony on 1 July at the home of Military Intelligence. If that date is not convenient, please advise us if you could visit Ft.
Huachuca on another date when we could conduct an appropriate ceremony honoring you.*

Dear General Menoher,

Thank you for your letter of February 8th. Needless to say, I am honored to be selected as an Honorary Member of the Military Intelligence Corps.

Regrettably, I cannot attend the Corps' anniversary ceremony on July 1st, and I cannot project right now any dates when I might be able to visit Fort Huachuca. My schedule, which I thought was going to be somewhat relaxed and quiet, has turned out not to be quite so.

I appreciate very much this wonderful honor and appreciate, too, your understanding my position. Please extend to the Corps' members my thanks, my warm regards, and my deep respect.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush:

Thank you for your letter of 1 March. We regret you cannot visit us and participate in our Military Intelligence Hall of Fame ceremony, but appreciate how tight your schedule must be.

Enclosed is your certificate for Honorary Membership in the Military Intelligence Corps. As I explained in my letter of 8 February, this is an earned honor, and we are very proud to present it to you.

I will extend your sincere thanks, warm regards, and deep respect to the members of the Military Intelligence Corps. Please understand that our invitation to visit Fort Huachuca is always open. When you come, look forward to relaxation and recreation in this beautiful part of Arizona, as well as the opportunity to meet some of your strongest supporters!

Respectfully,
